MEET THE SUPPLIER

ALLAN REEDER

From a one-man start-up in 1971 to one of London's leading dairy suppliers, with Allan still very much involved in the family business! As they deal with natural products, they have a vested interest in caring for the environment – which is why they sponsor environmental projects, such as village wind farms and landfill gas capture, to offset their carbon usage. As a result, they are a carbon-neutral business.

BREAD FACTORY

Founded in 1993, their ethos, suppliers, skill and decades-old sourdough starter cultures – hasn't changed. They continue to bake many of the original breads they baked at the beginning, with plenty more new breads - on a daily basis. They still deliver to some of the best chefs and retailers in London and still strongly believe in their original mission to give more people better access to the best-quality baked goods.

ICE CREAM UNION

Ice Cream Union break convention by constantly finding new ways to refine their craft. From the tools they use, to their ingredients, everything has been meticulously planned and sourced for the finest results. To produce ice cream that is unique, true to flavour and tastes amazing, they focus a lot of time on ingredients, whether hand-selecting the best Sicilian blood oranges at peak season, making their own honeycomb, or sourcing the freshest milk direct from The Estate Dairy and the Ivy House Farm.

AUBREY ALLEN

This family business started over 80 years ago as a small butcher's shop in Coventry and the company has evolved over the years to what it is today - one of the best known, and award winning, butchers in the UK and supplier to The Royal Family. They have grown through their commitment to making the best quality meat available to their customers.
